ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5th 1925.

VOLUME XXIX.

Enterprise Will Stage Hog and Poultry Show On December 8 and 9

At a recent meeting of the business men of Enterprise in the First National Bank, it was unanimously voted to hold a Hog and Poultry Show similar but larger than the one held last fall in front of the courthouse. Sufficient funds have been contributed by the progressive business men of Enterprise to finance the expenses and premium lists of the show.

The Pig Club Boys will show their pigs and hold a sale of their fall litter. We will have the best aggregation of purebred hogs at Enterprise of any county in the state. This has been made possible by the liberal terms offered by the Pig Clubs in the way of financial assistance in the purchase of their breeding stock. Coffee county now has sufficient "seed corn" so far as good blooded hogs are concerned to furnish every farm in the county with the best stock.

Everybody is urged to take an interest in this show and help usher back Coffee's once boasted position of the biggest and best hog county in Alabama.

The poultry exhibits will be far better than last year and Miss Grace James, Home Demonstration agent urges all poultry interests to assist in exhibits. After the two days spent at Enterprise the large exhibits will be moved to Elba for another two day show in which will be added the schools of the county.

Following is the premium list of the Hog and Poultry department:

COTTON AT 20c. WILL EX-
CEED ANY OTHER CROP.
BY $2,500.00.

Auburn, Ala., Nov. 1.—Based on an average price of 20 cents a pound, the cotton crop in Alabama is worth up to $2,500,000 more than any other crop produced in this State. At first figure 1,270,000 bales, the estimate as of October 18, is worth $127,000,000. The 1919 crop of 713,000 bales which brought an average price of approximately 35 cents a pound cost the farmers of the State approximately $124,500,000, or $1.5 million dollars under the 1925 crop.

Records kept by W. F. Gist, agricultural statistician at Auburn, show that these two and only two other cotton crops in Alabama have returned to the growers more than $100,000,000. The 1918 crop of 801,000 bales, which brought an average price of 28.79 cents a lb., was worth $115,303,000. The 1924 crop of 986,000 bales, which brought an average price of 23.11 cents per pound, returned to the growers $113,922,000.

The total sale price of the present crop is approximately $50,000,000 less than the average of the ten-year period from 1914 to 1923, which was $76,288,000. The average price for the period was 21.29 cents per pound.

The present crop is the first to exceed a million bales since that of 1915, which exceeded this mark by 21,000 bales. The biggest ever made in Alabama was in 1914 when the production was 1,750,000 bales. The average that year was 7.29 cts per pound.

While the total money received for this crop sets a new high record it probably is not true that the net return to the growers are equal to those of other years when the cost of producing cotton was much higher than it was this year.

WOMEN MAKING HATS FOR OWN USE—

Auburn, Ala., Oct. 27.—The practice of women making hats for themselves continues to grow in popularity in Alabama. Recent reports received by the district demonstration agent show that about four thousand women in practically every county having a home demonstration agent are making hats for themselves.

In one county as many as 75 hats have been made during the current season. In other counties millinery schools have been conducted by Miss Johnnie Eddy, extension specialist in clothing; and following those schools the work is getting under way.

In the number of hats made Chambers leads with 75 hats, reports Mrs. Zelma Jackson, home demonstration agent. Tallapoosa is second with 60, according to Miss Thalia Bell. New Brockton after an illness of some duration. The remains were interred Sunday at McElroy, formerly of Elba, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. McBrayer will be at home after October 20th at 731 South Twenty-ninth Street, Birmingham News.

BORN AND DIED ON SAME SPOT OF LAND.—

W. P. Wilson, aged 68 years died Saturday at his home in New Brockton after an illness of some duration. The remains were interred Sunday at McElroy, formerly of Elba, Ala., Mr. Wilson was the father of Mrs. A. J. Riverbank of Samson. A curious circumstance about Mr. Wilson's birth and death is that he was born on the same spot of land on which he died, although the house was not the same. He had been a lifelong resident of New Brockton-Samson Ledger.

OBITUARY.

On October 22, 1925 the death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Crosby and claimed for its victim the loving husband. He made his home in Elba, where they lived a happy life together for nearly 12 years.

He was 73 years old at the time of his death and his wife 69 years of age.

He left one brother, Mr. Jim Crosby and one sister Mrs. Adeline Tucker to mourn his loss. He also left a host of brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Mr. Thomas Eppes, Colonel and Mrs. Tucker and also Messers J. D. Adkinson and Jim Atchley. He left three sisters-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Adkison, Mrs. Sarah Atchley and Mrs. Jim Crosby.

He was born and reared near Victoria. He lived several years at Wise's mill where he married his first wife, Mrs. Crosby and I began praying over him and finding him a friend. He moved back next year and his child-hood home where he spent the last three months of his life there he found many friends in his last days.

I wish to thank each and everyone for the kindness shown him during his sickness and death, his sickness being a true example of the 7 commandments of God's richest blessings rest upon everyone who showed a deed of kindness and love.

I wish to thank Dr. D. Bragwell, Bragg and Hayes for their kind ness and attention. He often spoke of relief saying if it was God's will to take him he was ready or if not he was ready to stay and help him.

He could add 2 more years to his life, God reward him and let him talk just before he died and I said Alabamian this is Lizzie talking with you could

Special entertainment should be given "The Mystic Island," Thursday night and "The Nolived Wife," Friday night, as these are all extra good feature scenes. We do not mean that the other plays are not good ones, but believe you will find them up to the standard with any play put on by the talented organization on the road.

Two slightly concerts are of the very best, and we wish you to especially see the Broadway Revue—dancing beauties from the vaudeville circuits in the most gorgeous costumes staged under canvas.

The following vanity girls of 1925 will appear wearing the latest fashions—costumes that have been worn on the stage. Misses Irene Palmer, Bessie Leighton, Ethel Vevie, Kathie Johnson, Nellie Bond, Ella Wagner and Hazel Bentley will furnish the entertainment galore for the concerts.

Send your Kodak Films to Edwin Heath, Box 42, Elba, Alabama.

Boost Coffee's Two Big Hog and Poultry Shows
To Be Held in December

The following Calender has been fixed for two big Hog and Poultry Shows to be held at Elba on November 8th and 9th and Elba December 10th and 11th. The merchants, bankers and citizens of these two progressive towns have subscribed over $1000.00 in cash to be paid as premiums, and we will have the most attractive list of cash premiums of any county or State Fair in the South. It only remains for the growers of poultry and hogs to fully co-operate in order that we may stage the best exhibits along these lines of any county in Alabama.

Coffee county is the only county in Alabama having a well organized Pure Breed Hog Club. This club was organized two years ago by the hog farmers of Elba and with the financial assistance of the county banks. Mr. Warren, of the First National Bank loaned money to over 50 boys with which to buy pure bred gilts and Mr. Session financed nearly as many boys. These boys have developed their gilts into splendid brood sows and have sold them to the hog farmers of the county by their side at the Shows.

The Greatest Thing" is not possessed of those material things to make us comfortable; not the ability to make someone happy by a pleasant word or smile; not the wish that we might see better conditions in our county, state and Nation; not the fact that we are placid in our own position in life; not that we will agree with others; not that we can be deeply embedded in my life as I am; but that I am wanted to serve the public.

As the days draw nearer into the winter ones, when the world looks drab, and some truly means that never in our history have we seen such gloomy weather, I wonder how many of us seriously think that we are justified in throwing down the gauntlet of service and consider our work as being finished. It is such a wonderful thought to realize at the end of the day we have helped to make someone's life more comfortable; not by our own strength, but by the strength of others.
